BEIJING

Activities Highlights:
Temple of Heaven, Tiananmen Square, Forbidden City

Breakfast at the Hotel
Begin your day with a delicious breakfast and then meet your guide in the hotel lobby for an introduction to Beijing history and a description of the morning’s activity.

Beijing Temple Tour – Visit the Temple of Heaven
Be driven by motor coach to the Temple of Heaven, accompanied by your local guide. Built in 1420, this huge structure is where the emperors of the Ming and Qing dynasties worshipped the god of heaven and offered sacrifices to heaven to ensure a good harvest. It is now a cultural museum that chronicles the history of China through its architecture, art, music and more.

Lunch at Huajia Yiyuan Restaurant
Enjoy delicious Beijing duck and other traditional Chinese specialties at this popular restaurant with its classic atmosphere and beautiful décor.

Beijing Walking Tour – Tiananmen Square
Take a guided walk across Tiananmen Square, named after the Tiananmen Gate on its north side, which translates to “Gate of Heavenly Peace.” Learn about the history of this historic gathering place for celebrations and protests. Your local guide will point out the Monument to People’s Heroes, Tiananmen Tower, Great Hall of the People, Memorial Hall of Chairman Mao and the National Museum of China.

Forbidden City

Enter the Forbidden City on the south side through the Gate of Supreme Harmony. On this guided tour, learn details about the incredible Imperial Palace that’s housed here and which was the seat of power from 1416 to 1911. Covering 178 acres and including 90 palaces with courtyards and over 10,000 rooms containing remarkable furnishings and art, the Forbidden City is a historical testimony to Chinese civilization during the Ming and Qing dynasties. Stroll through grand halls, courts and banquet rooms and visit pavilions and palaces with fascinating exhibitions. Be awestruck by the extraordinary glazed tile Nine-Dragon Screen and the spectacular Imperial Garden!

Breakfast at the Hotel
Enjoy a tasty breakfast before you begin today’s adventures.

Fly to Xi’an
Take a motor coach to the airport and board a plane to Xi’an. Be assisted with your luggage along the way.

Xi’an Terracotta Museum
Explore one of the most spectacular wonders in China! A UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Site, the Terracotta Warriors and Horses were first discovered in 1974 in an archaeological dig where over 7,000 clay sculptures of warriors, horses and chariots were found buried alongside China’s first emperor, Qin Shi Huang Di—the protection he was going to take with him into the afterlife! The museum features these life-size terracotta figures in battle formations, representing the imperial guard of that era. Digging at this archaeological site is ongoing in the expectation of unearthing more monumental discoveries like these.

Dinner and Flight to Guilin
Ride a motor coach to the airport and fly to Guilin.

IMPORTANT DETAILS

Day 4

Please note: Although Forbidden City has level paths made of asphalt or flat paving stones, there are some steps that need to be negotiated.

Day 5

Please note: On the Great Wall of China, there are numerous steps to climb, some of which are steep by Western standards. Sidewalks are mostly asphalt or paving stones with broken and uneven surfaces in some areas requiring a fair degree of vigilance.
