KYOTO

Activities Highlights:

Rickshaw Tour: Arashiyama & Bamboo Forest, Pure Water Temple, Maiko Performance

Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner Included

Hyatt Regency Kyoto

Rickshaw Tour: Arashiyama & Bamboo Forest

Begin your amazing adventure with an exploration of the historic city of Kyoto from a traditional rickshaw. Tour the scenic streets of Arashiyama, a district on Kyoto’s western outskirts, as you learn about the city’s history and culture. You’ll also ride into the district’s renowned Bamboo Forest, a massive grove of manicured bamboo trees that are magical to see.

Arashiyama District Walking Tour

Enjoy a guided morning walking tour of the Arashiyama district, an area of scenic beauty which features the Bamboo Forest as well as many temples, including the magnificent Zen temple, Tenryu-ji Temple, home to one of Kyoto’s loveliest gardens and surrounded by forested mountain views.

Lunch at Yoshiya Restaurant in Arashiyama

Soak up the atmosphere of this ancient city through the wonderful flavors and aromas of a traditional Japanese meal while enjoying amazing views of Arashiyama from the restaurant’s Arashi-no-tei room.
Pure Water Temple Walking Tour

Marvel at the beauty of Otowa-san Kiyomizu-dera, or Pure Water Temple, one of Kyoto’s most celebrated sacred monuments. Founded in 780, the temple was built on the site of Otowa Waterfall, whose waters are divided into 3 streams, from which visitors are invited to drink in order to receive longevity, success at school and a good love life. But be warned—drinking from all 3 streams is considered greedy! Pure Water Temple is also known for its wooden stage which was built without a single nail and juts out over the hillside offering stunning views of the maple and cherry trees below, as well as the city of Kyoto off in the distance.

Welcome Dinner at Sodoh

Join your fellow Adventurers for a wonderful welcome dinner at one of Kyoto’s finest upscale restaurants. Share stories from your day in Kyoto and discuss adventures still to come as you dine on attentively handcrafted dishes in an intimate Japanese setting.

Lunch on Your Own in Miyajima
Known as the “Island of the Gods,” Miyajima is often named as one of the most scenic spots in Japan. Enjoy exploring this beautiful island which is also home to many wonderful dining options for an appetizing lunch.

Torii Gate Photo Op
Rendezvous with your fellow Adventurers for a fantastic photo op at the iconic Torii Gate, which is the entrance to the Itsukushima Shrine. Due to its location, the gate appears to float on the water when the tide comes in.

Shinto Shrine and Buddhist Temple Tour
Learn the history of the popular Itsukushima Shinto shrine and its famed Torii Gate from a local expert who will take you on a tour of the shrine and a nearby Buddhist temple.

Hiroshima Peace Park
Visit this memorial park in the center of Hiroshima, which is dedicated to the memories of the victims of the atomic bomb that was dropped on August 6, 1945. Built on what was once the city’s busiest areas, it is now the scene of the A-Bomb Dome, the ruins of one of the buildings, as well as several memorials.

⭐ Museum Visit or Fold Origami Cranes

Discover the history and the horrors of Hiroshima and its role in World War II. The museum houses many exhibits and information, plus substantial memorabilia and images from the bombing.

Due to the graphic nature of some of the museum’s images and exhibits, Guests may choose to participate in an origami crane folding activity. The activity is tied to Hiroshima through 10-year-old Sadako Sasaki and an ancient legend that anyone who folds a thousand origami cranes will be granted a wish by the gods. To this day, visitors to the museum, as well as people around the world, continue to fold origami cranes and add them to the collection at the statue created in Sadako’s memory.

⭐ Return Origami Cranes to Pavilion

Add your origami crane—a global symbol of peace—to the millions of cranes that are created and sent to the Children’s Peace Monument from the world over where they are on display as a monument to world peace.

⭐ Okonomiyaki Dinner Experience

Dig into a local favorite food—Okonomiyaki! This healthy crepe is crafted to accommodate individual tastes and is filled with choices that include meat, seafood, noodles, vegetables or any combination of these ingredients. The dish is so beloved by the people of Hiroshima, there are over 2,000 Okonomiyaki restaurants in the region.
