BARCELONA

Activities Highlights:
Arrive in Barcelona, Picasso Museum (Optional), Welcome Dinner at the Hotel

Arrive in Barcelona, Spain
¡Bienvenidos a Barcelona! Be greeted by an Adventures by Disney representative and shown to your transfer vehicle. Your driver assists with your luggage and drives you to the Hotel Casa Fuster, located in the heart of Barcelona.

Check-In at Hotel Casa Fuster
Explore this luxury hotel as your Adventure Guides check you in. Hotel Casa Fuster was designed by the famous Catalán architect Lluís Domènech i Montaner, whose Modernist works have been declared World Heritage Sites by UNESCO. The Art Deco-style hotel boasts marvelous marble touches throughout its interior and 21st-century ambiance. From the rooftop terrace, take in spectacular views of the Mediterranean Sea, the Tibidabo Mountain, Gaudi’s La Sagrada Familia and one of the city’s major avenues, Passeig de Gràcia.

Picasso Museum Visit (Optional)
After a convenient timed entry, enjoy a self-guided audio tour as you view the world’s largest collection of the influential Spanish painter’s works, which are housed in 5 adjoining medieval palaces within Barcelona's historic Gothic Quarter. Meanwhile, your Adventure Guides hosts Junior Adventurers on their own Picasso tour.

Welcome Dinner at Hotel

Become acquainted with your fellow Adventurers at a delicious welcome dinner served in the magnificent dining room of this fine hotel—the first of many Spanish feasts.
BARCELONA

Activities Highlights:
Park Güell, Privately Guided Tour of La Sagrada Familia, El Pueblo Español

Breakfast at the Hotel
Begin your day with a tasty breakfast and get ready to explore some of the artistic treasures in this remarkable city.

Panoramic City Tour
Board a motor coach for a dynamic, guided tour of Barcelona. See some of its most famous areas from the Waterfront to the 1992 Olympic Ring of sports stadiums to Montjuïc Hill with its art galleries and museums.

Park Güell
Visit Park Güell, which was commissioned by Eusebi Güell in 1890 to be a stylish garden city for Barcelona aristocracy. Designed by Antoni Gaudí—the leading architect of Catalan modernism—it is now a public park and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. An imaginative outdoor playground with incredible views of Barcelona, it’s filled with whimsical architecture including surrealist stone structures and colorful mosaics that reflect Antoni Gaudí’s organic style.

Privately Guided Tour of La Sagrada Família
Understand why Barcelona is called the “City of Gaudí” when you see La Sagrada
Família—Antoni Gaudí’s huge basilica that began being built in 1882. A Gothic-Art Nouveau masterpiece that is still under construction, this extraordinary temple with its fantastical shapes and spires has become the enduring symbol of Barcelona.

Lunch at a Local Restaurant
Enjoy scrumptious Mediterranean cuisine featuring fresh seafood and local vegetables at a popular restaurant in Barcelona.

El Pueblo Español
Stroll through this open-air architectural museum located on Montjuïc Hill in Barcelona featuring arts and crafts—with artisans sometimes demonstrating their skills. It is composed of 117 buildings made to resemble an Iberian village representing regions including Aragón, the Basque Country, Castile, Andalusia, Extremadura and Catalonia.

On Your Own Dinner in Barcelona
Choose from a variety of fine restaurants featuring Spanish and international cuisine. Ask your Adventure Guides to recommend a restaurant that’s ideal for you and your family.

Check-In at the Westin Palace, Madrid
Bask in the luxury of this iconic Belle Époque palace, located in Madrid’s “Golden Triangle.” Built according to the wishes of Spanish royalty in 1910, this landmark hotel has welcomed dignitaries as well as high society for over a century.

Royal Palace and Armory Tour
Visit Europe’s largest palace—Palacio Real, which translates to “Royal Palace.” Enjoy a guided tour of this magnificent structure that contains over 3,400 rooms. And then stop by the Royal Armory to explore a rare collection of arms dating from as early as the 15th century.

Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner Included
The Westin Palace, Madrid
Lunch at a Local Restaurant
Enjoy a delightful lunch of Spanish and international cuisine and get ready for the afternoon of discovery ahead.

Museo Nacional Del Prado Tour
Visit the main Spanish national art museum to view one of the world's finest collections of European art—and unquestionably the best collection of Spanish art. See iconic works by such masters as Goya, Velázquez, El Greco, Rubens and Bosch. Meanwhile, Junior Adventurers will be kept entertained with an interactive "Art Detective" game.

On Your Own in Retiro Park
Pick the kind of family fun you want to have at El Retiro Park—a green oasis in the heart of the vibrant city! Go rowing on the lake or bicycle along beautiful paths meandering around the greenery. Wander through the exquisite gardens, see exhibitions at palaces and admire outstanding sculptures, fountains and pavilions filled with exotic plants. Or just sit under a tree and watch the kids playing games on the lawn.
