⭐️ Bison, Berries & Bees: A Food Tour Along Alberta’s Cowboy Trail
Hit the trail on a day-long journey that consists of cowboy cuisine at local farms and working ranches along Alberta’s Cowboy Trail, each with deep roots in the shaping of this Canadian region.

⭐️ CRM Ranch
Roam this amazing ranch that is home to a huge population of bison and elk, farming them since 1997. You’ll walk the lane to the paddocks and get an up close view of these majestic animals (through a fence).

💥 Saskatoon Farm Tour
Learn all about the history and the future of one of the region’s signature foods and beloved Prairie berry—the Saskatoon—as you tour this beautiful farm located on the river valley.

🍴 Lunch at Saskatoon Farm
Dig into a delicious meal with choices that will appeal to all appetites. And be sure to save room for one of the decadent desserts, which are filled with the flavors of fresh Saskatoon berries.

⭐ Cowboy Experience at Trails End Ranch

Meet the family that calls this working ranch home and hear stories about how the great-grandfather was one of the first cowboys dating back to the 1880s—before there were fences. Learn about how the family raises cattle, then get a hands-on demonstration of how to rope—and try your hand at it on dummies.

 широко Chinook Honey Tasting & Tour

“Bee” educated with a first-hand look at the inner workings of a honeybee colony with a glass-enclosed observation hive on a tour of the immensely popular Chinook Honey. Home to over 150 hives, the Andrews family will teach you about how honeybees benefit humans and how environmental factors challenge these pollinators. Adult Adventurers may also choose to learn about—and taste—mead, or honey wine, the first alcoholic beverage.

🍴 Dinner On Your Own in Calgary

Discover the culinary treats this amazing city has to offer you as explore the downtown area, which is home to a wonderful array of restaurants. Be sure to ask your Adventure Guides for a recommendation, or find a new favorite on your own.
